

Our Building Process

At Edgecliff Homes our personal approach to the building process is what sets us apart. We allow for a clear and transparent view of all the steps involved ensuring you understand and are actively a part of the building journey. Throughout this exciting journey we will need your help to keep things running smoothly. Keep an eye on the timeline below where you can assist us along the way.

